Napoleon At Rest

His falchion waves along the Nile
His hosts he led ~~across~~ <sup>through</sup> alpine snows
One morrow towers that glared the while
His eagle flag unrolled and prone
~~the eagle flag unrolled and prone~~

Here sleeps he now alone not one
Of all the kings who crowns he gave
Beneath one his dust nor wife nor son
Has ever seen or sought his grave

Behind the sea girt rock the star
That led him on from crown to crown
Has sunk and nations from afar
Gazed as it faded and went down

High is his tomb the ocean flood
Far far below by storms is curled
As round him heaved while high he stood
A stormy and unstable world

Here sleeps he now the misty cloud
Which night hangs round him and the bre.
Of morning scatters is the shroud
That wraps the Congerers clay in death

Pause here the world breaths free at last
The hand that shook its thrones
And to the earth its scepters cast
Lies powerless beneath the stones

Hark comes there from the pyramids
Or from Siberias waste of snow
Or curques hills a voice that bids
The world he awed to mourn him no

~~the only and perpetual dirge~~
The only and perpetual dirge
That's heard there is the sea birds cry
The mournfull murmers of the surge
The louds deep voice the winds low sigh
